JUDGMENT

JCW VAN ROOYEN SC

BACKGROUND

[1] On 28 May 2009 Adept Internet (Pty) Ltd (“ADEPT”) was issued with an Individual Electronic Communications Network Service Licence by the

¹ At ICASA. An Independent Administrative Tribunal set up in terms of the Independent Communications Authority Act 13 of 2000. The CCC was recognised as an independent tribunal by the Constitutional Court in 2008. It, inter alia, decides disputes referred to it in terms of the Electronic Communications Act 2005. Such a decision is, on application, subject to review by a Court of Law. The Tribunal also decides whether complaints (or internal references from the compliance division or inspectors at ICASA) which it receives against licensees in terms of the Electronic Communications Act 2005 or the Postal Services Act 1998 (where registered postal services are included) are justified. Where a complaint or reference is dismissed the matter is final and only subject to review by a Court of Law. Where a complaint or reference concerning non-compliance is upheld, the matter is referred to the Council of ICASA with a recommendation as to sanction against the licensee. Council then considers a sanction in the light of the recommendation by the CCC. Once Council has decided, the final judgment is issued by the Complaints and Compliance Committee’s Coordinator. A licensee, which is affected by the sanction imposed, has a right to be afforded reasons for the Council’s imposition of a sanction. In the normal course, where Council is satisfied with the reasons put forward to it by the Complaints and Compliance Committee, further reasons are not issued. The final judgment is, on application, subject to review by a Court of Law.

Independent Communications Authority of South Africa (“ICASA”). ICASA’s Compliance Division (ECS and ECNS licences), which has a delegated monitoring function, referred this matter to the Complaints and Compliance Committee (“CCC”), alleging that ADEPT had not filed financial statements for the financial year-ends 2010 to 2013, that no contribution had been made in terms of the Universal Service and Access Fund (“USAF”) and no licence fees paid.

[2]The relevant Regulations under which the reference was made, are from 2011.² In so far as the year-ends 2010 and 2011 are concerned, the CCC is not constitutionally empowered to hear the matter. The Constitution of the Republic of South Africa³ does not permit charges to be brought under repealed legislation, unless a charge was initiated while such legislation was still in operation.⁴ The allegation of omissions was sent to the licensee by the CCC Coordinator in 2015. Thus, only the contraventions relating to the non-submission of the 2012 and 2013 financial statements are before the CCC. The same principle applies to the payment of USAF fees and licence fees. Earlier omissions are, accordingly, not before the CCC since they relate to dates before the 2011 Regulations became operative, including year-end 2011, which would be February 2011. The debts, however, remain intact.⁵ As would appear from the documentation, financial statements were also not filed for later years. These are also not before the CCC for purposes of this hearing. However, a copy of a bank statement shows that the debts up to year-end 2014 were paid. From other correspondence it emerges that the debts have been paid up to year-end 2016.

[3] The duty to file financial statements was published in the Government Gazette in 2011 and 2013 and copied on the ICASA Website. The Notices called upon licensees to file financial statements with ICASA. These Notices were published in accordance with the Network Regulations which authorize ICASA to require information from licensees.⁶ The Notices were necessary to trigger the possible fines in terms of the September 2011 Regulations.⁷ As will appear from the attached Regulations, omissions to file financial statements and pay USAF contributions and licence fees attract fines which could, under aggravating circumstances, be quite substantial.

⁴ And it is constitutionally acceptable. Thus, the death penalty could not be imposed for murder committed even before the interim Constitution of the Republic became effective in April 1994.

⁵ Although they might have become prescribed –compare MAIZE BOARD v EPOL (PTY) LTD 2009 (3) SA 110 (D); HOLENI v LAND AND AGRICULTURALDEVELOPMENT BANK OF SOUTH AFRICA 2009 (4) SA 437 (SCA); COMMISSIONER OF CUSTOMS AND EXCISE v TAYOB AND OTHERS 2002 (6) SA 86 (T); THE MASTER v I L BACK & CO LTD AND OTHERS 1983 (1) SA 986 (A); COMMISSIONER OF CUSTOMS AND EXCISE v TAYOB AND OTHERS 2002 (6) SA 86 (T).

NON-COMPLIANCE

[4] Even if the statements have now been filed and the debts have been paid, the CCC must, however, nevertheless consider the omissions and decide whether a finding should be made against ADEPT in terms the Regulations as set out in the Addendum to this judgment. Both the non-filing of financial statements for 2012 and 2013 plus the omission to pay USAF contributions and licence fees are formally before the CCC (the other omissions, as mentioned, are not before us formally).

[5] A high standard of compliance is expected from a licensee and this was lacking in the present case. In *S v Waglines Pty Ltd and Another*⁸ Judge Didcott held that “ignorance of or mistake about the law is cognisable by the courts only if that excuse is an acceptable one. The answer would depend on the care he took or did not take to acquaint himself with the true legal position. That person has a duty to acquaint himself with the true legal position, particularly when he is engaged in a trade, occupation or activity which he knows to be legally regulated.” To ensure consistency and orderly management within the licensing regime, negligence (culpa) would generally suffice. Compare *S v Longdistance Natal Pty Ltd*⁹ where Nicholson, Acting Judge of Appeal, stated as follows at 284:

“*Mens rea*¹⁰ in the form of *culpa*¹¹ is sufficient for convictions under para (a) or (b) of s 31(1) of the Act. Accused No 4 and the corporate accused were engaged in the specialised field of road

⁷ ADEPT is a Network licence holder.

⁸ 1986(4) SA 1135(N) and regulation of the Standard Terms and Conditions for Individual Electronic Communications Network Service 2010 – both came into operation on 11 September 2011.

transportation, which is strictly controlled by an Act of Parliament and regulations made thereunder. It was plainly their duty to take all reasonable care to acquaint themselves with what they were permitted and what they were not permitted to do. (Cf S v De Blom 1977 (3) SA 513 (A) at 532G.)

[6] Thus, even if ADEPT has paid its fees and has rectified all the omissions, it must still be found to have been in contravention of the 2011 Regulations for not having filed its year-end 2012 and 2013 financial statements and paid the amounts due for USAF and licence fees for these periods. It was clearly negligent in its omissions. As a licensee ADEPT should at least have obtained legal advice as to its obligations in the light of the judgments referred to above. The fact that it has, at this stage, paid all its outstanding fees and filed financial statements up to year-end 2016 is an extenuating circumstance in the consideration of the order which we should consider in our advice to Council. From the correspondence of the licensee with Mr Mtolo from the Office of the Coordinator it is also clear that the licensee was most willing to pay what was owed and, in fact, did so.

FINDING ON THE MERITS

[7] ADEPT is, accordingly, found to have been in breach of the September 2011 Regulations, the 2011 USAF Regulations and the Licence Fees Regulations 2012 by not having filed its 2012 and 2013 financial statements and not having paid USAF-fees and licence fees for the year-ends 2012 and 2013 timeously.

ADVICE TO THE ICASA COUNCIL AS TO SANCTION

[8] In the light of the fact that there is no evidence before the CCC that ADEPT was mala fide in its omission to file the financial statements and pay licence and USAF fees for the year-ends 2012 and 2013 and, in any case, has also paid all its dues, it is not necessary to issue more than a desist order in terms of section 17E(2)(a) of the ICASA Act. That sub-paragraph provides as follows:

“The Complaints and Compliance Committee may recommend that one or more of the following orders be issued by the Authority, namely -

(a) direct the licensee to desist from any further contravention;

The order of Council, it is advised, should read as follows:

ADEPT INTERNET (PTY) LTD is ordered to desist in future from not filing its duly confirmed financial statements, as prescribed, within six months after its financial year end and, also as prescribed, not paying its USAF contributions and licence fees when due.

The said order is legally enforceable, should it be breached in future.¹²
