JUDGMENT

JCW VAN ROOYEN SC

BACKGROUND

[1] On the 7th February 2011 the Independent Communications Authority of South Africa ("ICASA") issued an Individual Electronic Communications Service

¹ An Independent Administrative Tribunal at ICASA set up in terms of the Independent Communications Authority Act 13 of 2000. The CCC was recognised as an independent tribunal by the Constitutional Court in 2008. It, inter alia, decides disputes referred to it in terms of the Electronic Communications Act 2005. Such a decision is, on application, subject to review by a Court of Law. The Tribunal also decides whether complaints (or internal references from the compliance division or inspectors at ICASA) which it receives against licensees in terms of the Electronic Communications Act 2005 or the Postal Services Act 1998 (where registered postal services are included) are justified. Where a complaint or reference is dismissed the matter is final and only subject to review by a Court of Law. Where a complaint or reference concerning non-compliance is upheld, the matter is referred to the Council of ICASA with a recommendation as to sanction against the licensee. Council then considers a sanction in the light of the recommendation by the CCC. Once Council has decided, the final judgment is issued by the Complaints and Compliance Committee's Coordinator. A licensee, which is affected by the sanction imposed, has a right to be afforded reasons for the Council's imposition of a sanction. In the normal course, where Council is satisfied with the reasons put forward to it by the Complaints and Compliance Committee, further reasons are not issued. The final judgment is, on application, subject to review by a Court of Law. The order of Council is enforceable in terms of section 17H(1)(f) of the ICASA Act.

Licence and an Individual Electronic Communications Network Licence² to E-Mbizo Solutions Developers (Pty) Ltd (“E-Mbizo”). A licence issued in 2006 was substituted by the said licences. ICASA’s Compliance Division (ECS and ECNS licences), which has a delegated monitoring function, referred this matter in 2013 to the Complaints and Compliance Committee at ICASA (“CCC”), alleging that E-Mbizo had not filed financial statements for the years 2006-2007, 2007-2008, 2008-2009, 2009-2010, 2010-2011, 2011-2012, 2012-2013. Later years were not included, since the allegations were referred to the CCC in 2013. The filing should have been done, according to Compliance, in accordance with General Notices³ published in the Government Gazette in terms of the September 2011 Regulations regarding Standard Terms and Conditions for Individual and Individual Network Licences.⁴ Furthermore, that no contribution had been made in terms of the February 2011 Universal Service and Access Fund (“USAF”) Regulations and no licence fees paid in terms of the ICASA General Licence Fees Regulations 2012.⁵

[2] The September 2011 Regulations, in accordance with which Government Notices were issued requiring licensees to file financial statements, do not have retroactive effect and, accordingly, only the financial years 2011-2012 and 2012-2013 are before the CCC. Earlier financial years cannot be part of the alleged contraventions before the CCC, since the earlier Regulations were repealed by the September 2011 Regulations. The Constitution of the Republic of South Africa 1996⁶ does not permit charges to be brought under repealed legislation, unless a charge was initiated while such legislation was still in operation.⁷ The allegation of omissions was sent by Compliance to the CCC Coordinator in 2013, with a copy to E-Mbizo. Thus, only the omission to file financial statements for the said two financial years are before the CCC. The same principle applies to the USAF contributions.

NON-ACTIVITY

[3] After the first email from the Coordinator was sent to E-Mbizo on 8 June 2016 an answer was received from E-Mbizo in an email, dated 10 June 2016, from the Group CEO, Mr Thabo Malebadi. The answer, inter alia, states as follows:

We would like to bring to the CCC's attention that we, as E-mbizo, have had over the above-mentioned period made the regulator aware of the fact that we were not yet generating revenues from the telecommunications licences, by form of letters. As per our meeting held at the ICASA offices, we were then brought to the understanding that Annual Financial Statements were still required. We hereby attach our Annual Financial Statements, with this letter. Please accept our apology for the misunderstanding in this regard.

E-mbizo is a SME company, that has over the years (been) working very hard to roll out a high speed reliable wireless broadband internet network in the Tembisa township in the Ekurheleni area, as a pilot. We have provided stable connectivity, in hopes that the Education department could assist to pay for the services or alternatively through USAASA.

Through the success of the Tembisa network, we were further appointed and licensed by the CSIR to take over the wireless mesh infrastructure in Mpumalanga and Limpopo, where around 190 schools connected are based in the Nkangala district. Despite this appointment, E-mbizo has not received any payment for services.

The "Broadband for All", as we have adopted it, is expected to be sustainable and to grow to other schools within the district and further onto the rest of the Mpumalanga Province. We have in this project the support of the Department of Science and Technology, which was also a co-founder along with the EU Commission for the project, when it was under the CSIR. E-mbizo intends to render commercial services as soon as the current upgrades have been completed.

We would also like to bring to your attention our strong interest to establish a sustainable network in our township and rural communities and render affordable services to these communities.

As a small company we are inundated with different challenges and despite it all, we have no intention of being non-compliant in all regulatory requirements of ICASA. We would therefore like to find an amicable solution to the above charge brought against our company.

Furthermore we have all intentions to meet our obligations in paying the Annual Licensing Fees and Universal and Access Fund Fees, as stated in your letter.”

[4] MJK Accountants, in a letter dated 30 July 2016, confirmed that E-Mbizo has not been active in terms of its licences and that no income has resulted from the licences. In a letter dated 5 October 2016 it stated that it had referred to the financial years 2010-2011, 2011-2012, 2012-2013, 2014-2015. The Accountants, however, stated that E-Mbizo envisions to generate revenue from telecommunications services in the financial year 2015-2016.

[5] The failure to file financial statements was, in the light of the non-activity, satisfactorily explained for the financial years before the CCC – that is 2011-2012 and 2012-2013. In any case, the 2011 and 2012 Government Gazette notices in regard to the filing of financial statements state nothing about licensees which are not active, in so far as the filing of financial statements are concerned. The 2013 Government Gazette, however, states that “if a licensee has not commenced operation, (the) licensee is requested to submit a formal letter stating that they have not commenced operation.” The 2013 Gazette has a bearing on the financial year 2012-2013, which is inter alia before the CCC. The message is clear: the third category need only make a statement that it is not active under its licence.

[6] In so far as the payment of USAF fees are concerned, the fees are based on annual turnover. Annual turnover is defined in the USAF Regulations ⁸as the total revenue generated from licensed activity per annum less service provider discounts, agency fees, interconnection and facilities leasing charges, government grants and subsidies. Since E-Mbizo had no turnover, USAF fees were also not payable.

[7] The Licence Regulations⁹ provide that fees are payable based on revenue. Revenue is defined as follows:

“Revenue” means Revenue as defined in terms of the International Accounting Standard 18 and disclosed in the Licensee's audited Annual Financial Statements, i.e. the gross inflow of economic benefits during the period arising in the course of the ordinary activities of the entity when those inflows result in an increase of equity other than increases relating to contributions from equity participants.

⁹ See Annexures.

Since there was no gross inflow of economic benefits from the licences, no licence fee was payable.

FINDING

- (a) There was no duty on E-Mbizo Solutions Developers (Pty) Ltd to file Annual Financial Statements since it had not been active in terms of its licences as confirmed by its accountants.
- (b) There was, indeed, an omission to keep ICASA informed as to its not being active in terms of the licences - but that omission was not referred to the CCC by Compliance. The CCC is not permitted to add to the charges before it. The principle is well illustrated by the judgment of the Supreme Court of Appeal in Roux v Health Professions Council of SA & Another [2012] 1 All South Africa Law Reports 49 (SCA). Also compare the CCC judgment in Integrat (112/2015), where this principle was applied.
- (c) Since there was no annual turnover, there was no duty to pay USAF fees or licence fees.

In the result, no finding is made against E-Mbizo Solution Developers (Pty) Ltd.
