4. Language(s)

(1) Subject to the specific language requirements set out below, the Licensee shall ensure in respect of the licensed service, its programme material is provided primarily in English.

(2) The Licensee shall broadcast a minimum of two (2) hours of news and information programming per week during the performance period in a wide range of official languages other than English and shall make provision for sign language translation on screen during the prime time news bulletin. In complying with its obligations in respect of the use of official languages other than English, the Licensee shall not make excessive use of a single language, other than English, to the exclusion of other official languages.

(3) The Licensee shall broadcast four (4) hours of programming other than news and information per week in official languages other than English. Compliance with this sub-clause shall be measured accordingly over the licence year. In complying with the above obligations, the Licensee shall not make excessive use of a single language, other than English, to the exclusion of the other official languages.

(4) During the period of the Licence, the Licensee shall ensure that:

(a) at least ten percent (10%) of the aggregate broadcasting time of South African drama productions transmitted by the Licensee is broadcast in a wide range of official languages other than English, provided that, in meeting this requirement:

(i) the Licensee shall not be required to broadcast entire programmes in official languages other than English;

(ii) the Licensee shall not make excessive use of a single official language, other than English, to the exclusion of other official languages; and

- (iii) the programming in question shall be taken into account in assessing the Licensee's compliance or otherwise with the language requirements set out in sub-clause (3) above;
- (b) at least 20% of the aggregate broadcasting time of South African children's programming transmitted by the Licensee is in a wide range of official languages other than English, provided that, in meeting this requirement
 - (i) the Licensee shall not be required to broadcast entire programmes in official languages other than English;
 - (ii) the Licensee shall not make excessive use of a single official language, other than English, to the exclusion of other official languages; and
 - (iii) the programming in question shall be taken into account in assessing the Licensee's compliance or otherwise with the language requirements set out in sub-clause (3) above.
- (5) The Licensee shall endeavour to dub some of the children's programming acquired from abroad and broadcast by the Licensee into official languages other than English.

5. Format

The Licensee shall provide a wide variety of programmes.

6. Local Content Obligations

- (1) In procuring programming produced in South Africa, the Licensee shall commission programming from the different provinces. Such programming shall reflect provincial diversity, cultures and characters.
- (2) The Licensee shall ensure that forty five percent (45%) of broadcast time shall consist of local television content, a maximum of fifteen percent (15%) of which shall be re-broadcast, measured over a year.
- (3) The Licensee shall broadcast animations which reflect African and South African culture and life styles.
- (4) The Licensee shall provide programming which develops and promotes South African culture and talent, especially in the area of music, through locally produced programmes which may be broadcast during time that falls outside the South African television performance period.

- (5) The Licensee shall submit to the Authority on a quarterly basis, a log of local television content broadcast by the Licensee during the preceding quarter.

7. General Programming Obligations

Drama

- (a) The Licensee shall broadcast two (2) hours thirty (30) minutes of South African drama per week of which at least two (2) hours twenty (20) minutes must be broadcast during prime time. Compliance with this requirement shall be measured as a weekly average over the period of a licence year.
- (b) The Licensee shall ensure that no more than fifty percent (50%) of the South African drama referred to in sub-clause (a) above, consists of re-broadcasts.
- (c) The Licensee shall ensure that at least ten percent (10%) of South African drama productions broadcast by it shall comprise a broad range of official languages other than English. In meeting this requirement, the Licensee shall not make excessive use of a single official language other than English, to the exclusion of the other official languages.

8. Information Programming

The Licensee shall broadcast at least nineteen (19) hours of information programming per week, at least two (2) hours of which shall be broadcast during prime time.

9. News and Current Affairs

- (a) The Licensee shall broadcast news and current affairs programming that reflects local, regional and provincial events and developments.
- (b) The Licensee shall broadcast at least two (2) hours of news programming during the performance period, of which at least thirty (30) minutes, packaged as a single programme, shall be broadcast during prime time.
- (c) The Licensee shall exercise full editorial control in respect of the content of its news programming.

10. Programming targeted at Children

- (a) The Licensee shall broadcast sixteen (16) hours of children's programming per week, of which at least twenty percent (20%) shall comply with the local content requirements set out in the applicable regulations. Compliance with this obligation shall be measured as a weekly average over the period of one licence year.

(b) The Licensee shall broadcast the children's programming referred to in sub-clause (a) above, between the hours of 13h00 and 18h00 on weekdays and between 07h00 and 13h00 on weekends, provided that:

- (i) the Licensee shall endeavour to ensure that programming is broadcast at times when large numbers of children are likely to be watching television;
- (ii) in exceptional circumstances and then only to the extent reasonably necessary, the Licensee may broadcast other programming during the above-mentioned time periods ordinarily allocated to children's programming if a particular broadcast event of considerable importance necessitates that the children's programming be interrupted; and
- (iii) the total amount of children's programming to be broadcast by the Licensee, to be calculated as a weekly average over the period of a licence year, shall not be reduced.

(c) The Licensee shall broadcast one (1) hour thirty (30) minutes of South Africa youth drama during prime time. This is to be included in the children's programming quota referred to in sub-clause (a) and shall be measured as a weekly average over the period of a licence year.

11. Ownership and Control Structures Obligations

- (1) The Licensee may be assisted by foreign consultants in the operation of its broadcasting service, provided that:
 - (a) there is a written agreement with clear terms of reference, a copy of which is to be submitted to the Authority; and
 - (b) the broadcasting service operated in terms of this Licences is operated by the Licensee or by bona fide employees of the Licensee.

12. Employment Equity Obligations

- (1) At least forty percent (40%) of the License's employees (being staff and management) shall be Africans, that is, Black people excluding Coloureds and Indians.
 - (2) At least thirty five percent (35%) of the Licensee's employees (being staff and management) shall be women.
 - (3) At least five percent (5%) of the Licensee employees (being staff and management) shall be disabled people.
- (4) The Licensee's management shall consist predominantly of South Africans from historically disadvantaged groups (i.e. black (African, Coloured and Indian) South Africans, women and disabled people).

13. Skills and Development Obligations

- (1) The Licensee shall adhere to the following human resource training, skills and development practices:
 - (a) an efficient human resources function supported by a competent human resource development function;
 - (b) consultation between management and employees in decision-making processes;
 - (c) fair labour practices;
 - (d) a safe, healthy and accommodating working environment; and
 - (e) a well-resourced training arm with responsibility for the development of the Licensee's core staff and major independent contractors.
- (2) The Licensee shall endeavour to participate in the development of the broadcasting industry by, among other things:
 - (a) supporting independent contractors from historically disadvantaged groups;
 - (b) supporting industry development initiatives; and
 - (c) promoting the development of independent producers.
- (3) All local programming, other than news and current affairs, shall be commissioned out to the independent production sector.
- (4) The Licensee must recruit, train and develop individuals from historically disadvantaged groups and equip such people with appropriate managerial and technical skills relevant to the management and operation of a television station.
- (5) The Licensee must invest 5.5% of its total annual salary cost escalating annually at the rate of inflation, in staff training.

14. Provision of audited financial statements to the Authority

The Licensee shall provide the Authority with the annual financial statements of the licensed service within three (3) months of the end of the Licensee's financial year.

15. Limitations on Advertising and Provision of advertising-related Information

The Licensee may not broadcast:

- (1) more than an average of ten (10) minutes of advertisements per hour on the licensed service during any licence year; and

(2) advertisements in excess of twelve (12) minutes in any one hour.

16. Events of national interest

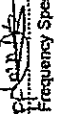

- (1) The Authority may, on written application by the Licensee, grant the Licensee exemption in writing, on such terms and conditions as the Authority deems necessary in the circumstances, from compliance with some or all of the on-air programming obligations set out in the licence, for a specified period, in the event that the Licensee satisfies the Authority that it is unable to comply with such obligations as a result of the broadcast of any event of national interest.
- (2) The Licensee's written application for the exemption contemplated in (1) 1 must be submitted to the Authority before the commencement of the broadcast of the relevant event of national interest, provided that, in exceptional circumstances, the Authority will accept and consider an application for such exemption after the commencement of such broadcast, provided further that the application is submitted to the Authority as soon as is reasonably practicable after such commencement.
- (3) The Licensee's written application for exemption must specify:
 - (a) the nature of the event of national interest concerned;
 - (b) the likely duration of the broadcast;
 - (c) the basis on which the Licensee contends that the event concerned is of national interest;
 - (d) the basis on which the Licensee contends that it will be unable to comply with some or all of its programming obligations if the broadcast were to take place;
 - (e) the extent to which the Licensee will, in its view, be unable to comply with the relevant programming obligations if the broadcast were to take place.
- (4) The Authority may deal with the application in accordance with such procedures as it may consider appropriate.
