1. PREAMBLE AND PURPOSE OF THE MANUAL

1.1. This Manual (the Manual) has been compiled in accordance with the Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000 (the Act). The Independent Communications Authority of South Africa (the Authority) is a public body as defined in the Act, and this Manual contains the information specified in section 14(1) of the Act, which is applicable to such a public body. This information is as follows –

- 1.1.1. a description of the structure and functions of the Authority;
- 1.1.2. the postal and street address, phone and fax number and, if available, electronic mail address of the information officer of the Authority and of every deputy information officer of the Authority designated in terms of section 17(1) of the Act;
- 1.1.3. a description of the guide referred to in section 10 of the Act;
- 1.1.4. the latest notice published by the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development under section 15(2) of the Act;
- 1.1.5. a description of the subjects on which the Authority holds records and the categories of records held on each subject in sufficient detail to facilitate a request for access to a record;
- 1.1.6. a description of the services available to members of the public from the Authority and how to gain access to those services;
- 1.1.7. a description of any arrangement or provision that is in place for a person by consultation, making representations or otherwise, to participate in or influence the formulation of policy or the exercise of powers or performance of duties of the Authority;
- 1.1.8. a description of all remedies available in respect of an act or a failure to act by the Authority; and

- 1.1.9. any other information as prescribed by regulation.
- 1.2. The Manual will be updated on a regular basis in accordance with the requirements of section 14(2) of the Act.
- 1.3. This Manual is intended, as contemplated in the Act, to give effect to the constitutional right of access to information held by the State and information that is held by any other person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights.
- 1.4. This Manual envisages providing a broad yet simple guide which will enable the requestor to obtain the records to which they are entitled in a quick, easy and accessible manner bearing in mind the Authority's vision, mission, and values as follows –
 - 1.4.1. Vision - An inclusive digital society;
 - 1.4.2. Mission - To regulate electronic communications, broadcasting and postal services in the public interest.
 - 1.4.3. Values – all the Authority`s regulatory activities are centered around five core values –
 - 1.4.3.1. Innovation – a willingness and ability to generate viable new approaches and solutions; and finding new and better ways of applying best solutions to meet stakeholder needs;
 - 1.4.3.2. Collaboration - eradicating “silos” by developing a conscious mind-set that aligns our work to our organisational vision and strategy; and creating synergies internally to fast-track our organisation’s performance;
 - 1.4.3.3. Accountability - executing daily work in a proactive manner; and taking full responsibility for the work that we do in collaboration with others;
 - 1.4.3.4. Results-Driven - achieving high quality results that are consistent with our organisational standards; and coaching and assessing our performance against goals, as well as identifying areas of improvement (ensuring that work does not “fall through the cracks”); and

- 1.4.3.5. Stakeholder-Centric - carrying out our duties with the stakeholder in mind. Stakeholders are central to what we do, and we welcome their feedback for a consistent and effective partnership.

DSQ

- 2.1. The Authority is the regulatory authority in respect of the broadcasting, postal services and electronic communications industry in South Africa.
- 2.2. Section 192 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996 (“the Constitution”) mandates Parliament “to establish an independent authority to regulate broadcasting in the public interest, and to ensure fairness and a diversity of views broadly representing South African society”. Parliament has deemed it fit to add the regulation of electronic communications, postal services and electronic transactions to the mandate of the Authority as the regulatory institution established pursuant to section 192 of the Constitution.
- 2.3. The Authority was established in terms of section 3 of the Independent Communications Authority of South Africa Act (Act No. 13 of 2000) (“the ICASA Act”). The Authority’s mandate is to regulate broadcasting, postal services and electronic communications in South Africa and is contained in the following legislation –
 - 2.3.1. ICASA Act;
 - 2.3.2. Electronic Communications Act (Act No. 35 of 2005), as amended (“the EC Act”);
 - 2.3.3. Broadcasting Act (Act No. 4 of 1999) (“the Broadcasting Act”); and
 - 2.3.4. Postal Services Act (Act No. 24 of 1998) (“the Postal Services Act”), for the regulation of electronic communications, broadcasting and postal service sectors in the public interest. In addition, ICASA falls under schedule 1 of the Public Finance Act (Act No. 1 of 1999) (“the PFMA”) and is an organ of state, which is bound by the Bill of Rights.

- 2.4. The Authority’s mandating legislation empowers it to - grant licences; monitor licensee compliance with licence terms and conditions; develop regulations and policy documents for the three sectors; plan and manage the radio frequency spectrum; and protect consumers in respect of these services.

DSQ

- 2.5. The Authority consists of a national office situated in Gauteng and 9 Regional Offices.
- 2.6. ICASA Councillors are appointed through a public parliamentary process outlined in the ICASA Act. The term of office for the Chairperson is five years, whereas that of Councillors is four years. The Authority's current members and Councillors are available on its website. The full organogram of the structure is on page 5 of this Manual.
- 2.7. The Authority appoints its members and Councillors of its governance committees. The Authority has the following governance committees and members -

Committee	No. of Members
Audit and Risk	3
Human Resources and Remuneration	3
Information Technology Review	3
Complaints and Compliance Committee	7

3. CONTACT DETAILS OF DEPUTY INFORMATION OFFICERS

- 3.1. The Chief Executive Officer of the Authority is Mr. Willington Ngwepe.
- 3.2. Mr. Willington Ngwepe is, accordingly, the Information Officer of the Authority for the purposes of the Act and has delegated his powers and duties, in terms of section 17(3) of the Act, to the National Coordinating Deputy Information Officer and Deputy Information Officers listed in paragraph 3.4.2 and 3.4.3 respectively.
- 3.3. In addition, and in order for the Authority to render itself as accessible as reasonably possible for requesters of its records, as contemplated in section 17(1) of the Act, the Information Officer has appointed Regional Deputy Information Officers in respect of each region, to handle specific requests for information, as well as a National Coordinating Deputy Information Officer whose function it is to record and manage all information requests.

6. HOW TO REQUEST ACCESS TO INFORMATION HELD BY THE AUTHORITY

The following steps must be considered before submitting a request -

6.1. Step 1: Is the requester entitled to use the Act to request access?

6.1.1. Requests for records for the purpose of criminal or civil proceedings

Section 7 (1) of the Act states that -

“[the] Act does not apply to a record of a public body or a private body if -

- (a) That record is requested for the purpose of criminal or civil proceedings;
- (b) So requested after the commencement of such criminal or civil proceedings, as the case may be;
- (c) The production of or access to that record for the purpose referred to in paragraph (a) is provided in law”.

6.1.1.1. If section 7(1) applies, the requester may not bring a request in terms of the Act and must use the rules and procedures for discovery of information of the relevant legal proceedings that the requester is involved in.

6.1.1.2. The Authority reserves the right to claim all expenses and other damages incurred as a result of a requester submitting a request for information falling within the scope of section 7(1).

6.1.2. Manifestly frivolous or vexatious, or substantially or unreasonably diverts resources

Section 45 of the Act states that -

DSQ

“[t]he Information Officer of [the Authority] may refuse a request for access to a record of [the Authority] if -

- (a) the request is manifestly frivolous or vexatious; or
- (b) the work involved in processing the request would substantially and unreasonably divert the resources of [the Authority].”

6.2. Step 2: Does the information requested exist in the form of a record?

- 6.2.1. The Act only applies to records which are in existence at the time of the Authority receiving the request.
- 6.2.2. The Act does not compel anyone to create a record which is not yet in existence at the time the request is made. For instance, the Act cannot be used to obtain reasons for a decision taken by the Authority if such reasons are not in the form of a record.
- 6.2.3. If the requester is not sure that such a record exists, the requester must indicate that in the relevant request form.

6.3. Step 3: Is the record in the possession or under the control of ICASA?

- 6.3.1. Section 4 of the Act provides that the record requested must be in the possession or under the control of the Authority.
- 6.3.2. For the purposes of the Act, a record in the possession or under the control of –
 - 6.3.2.1. an official of the Authority in his/her capacity as such; or
 - 6.3.2.2. an independent contractor engaged by the Authority in the capacity of such contractor, is regarded as being a record of that public body.

6.4. Step 4: Who may bring the request in terms of Chapter 2 or 3 of the Act?

- 6.4.1. Any person other than a public body or official thereof may make a request for access to a record of the Authority.

6.5. Step 5: Prescribed Form of Request

- 6.5.1. In terms of section 11 of the Act, a requester must make the request for access to a record on the prescribed form contained in the Regulations Regarding the Promotion of Access to Information (Form A - attached to this Manual, as Annexure 1) which must be submitted to the designated Regional Deputy Information Officer as a first point of contact where after the Information Officer or Deputy Information Officer by hand, post, per fax or per e-mail, as specified in paragraph 3.
- 6.5.2. A requester must provide sufficient detail on the prescribed form to allow the Authority to identify the record or records which have been requested and the identity of the requester.
- 6.5.3. Any person who would like to submit information using a MS Word version of the request form, may send an e-mail to the relevant the designated Regional Deputy Information Officer as a first point of contact where after the Information Officer or Deputy Information Officer requesting that a copy be send to the requester by e-mail.
- 6.5.4. If the request is made on behalf of another person, the requester must submit proof of the capacity in terms of which the requester is making the request, to the reasonable satisfaction of the Regional Deputy Information Officer as a first point of contact, where after the Information Officer or Deputy Information Officer. The requester is also required to indicate the form of access to the relevant records that is required, and to provide his, hers of its contact details in South Africa.
- 6.5.5. For the purposes of Form A, the requester must comply with all the procedural requirements in the Act relating to a request for access to the relevant records.
- 6.5.6. If a requester is illiterate or disabled and cannot make a request on the prescribed form then the request may be made orally by telephone or in person. The Regional Deputy Information Officer as a first point of contact, where after the Information Officer or Deputy Information Officer may reduce the oral request to writing in the prescribed form and provide a copy thereof to the requester.

7. CONSIDERING THE REQUEST

7.1. Subject to the provisions of the Act, access to records requested from the Authority will only be given if -

7.1.1. all the procedural requirements set out in the Act relating to a request are met; and

7.1.2. access to the requested record(s) is not refused in terms of any ground for refusal set out in the Act.

7.2. The Authority may, and must in certain instances, refuse access to records on any of the grounds set out in Chapter 4 of Part 2 of the Act. These grounds include that -

7.2.1. access would result in the unreasonable disclosure of personal information about a third party;

7.2.2. a record contains information which was obtained or is held by the South African Revenue Service for the purposes of enforcing legislation;

7.2.3. it is necessary to protect the commercial information of a third party;

7.2.4. it is necessary to protect the confidential information of a third party;

7.2.5. it is necessary to protect the safety of individuals or property;

7.2.6. a record constitutes privileged information for the purpose of police dockets in bail proceedings, law enforcement and legal proceedings;

7.2.7. a record could reasonably be expected to cause prejudice to the defence, security or international relations of South Africa;

7.2.8. a record would likely materially jeopardise the economic interests or financial welfare of South Africa;

7.2.9. it is necessary to protect the research information of a third party or the Authority itself; and

DSG

- 7.2.10. the request for access to a record is manifestly frivolous or vexatious or is a substantial and unreasonable diversion of resources.
- 7.3. Access to documents may also be refused on the basis of professional privilege.
- 7.4. If all reasonable steps have been taken to find a record that a requester has requested, and there are reasonable grounds for believing that the record is in the Authority's possession but cannot be found, or does not exist, then the Regional Deputy Information Officer as a first point of contact where after the Information Officer or Deputy Information Officer till, by way of an affidavit or affirmation, notify the requester that it is not possible to give access to that record.
- 7.5. The Authority is required to inform a requester in writing of its decision in relation to a request. If the requester wishes to be informed of the Authority's decision in another manner as well, this must be set out in the request and the relevant details included, in order to allow the Authority to inform the requester in the preferred manner.
- 7.6. The Authority will make a decision in relation to a request for records within 30 days of receiving it, unless third parties are required to be notified of the request or the 30-day period is extended as provided for in the Act. The Authority will notify the requester if the 30-day period for processing a request is to be extended.

8. PAYMENT OF FEES

- 8.1. For the following provisions of this paragraph 8, references to 'requester' exclude a 'personal requester' as defined in the Act as "a requester seeking access to a record containing personal information about the requester".
- 8.2. A requester must pay a request fee of R35.00. This request fee may be paid at the time a request is made, or the person authorised to deal with such requests on the Authority's behalf may notify the requester that the requester must pay the request fee before processing the request any further.

- 8.3. A requester may apply to the High Court to be exempted from the requirement to pay the request fee.
- 8.4. Where a request for access to a record or records held by the Authority is granted, the requester also has to pay an access fee for the reproduction of the record or records, and for the search for and the preparation of the records for disclosure. The Authority is entitled to withhold a record until the required access fees have been paid. The access fees which are payable are as listed in Annexure 2.
- 8.5. In addition, if the search for and preparation of the record or records requested takes more than six hours, the Authority may charge R15.00 for each hour or part thereof which is required for the search for and preparation of the records.
- 8.6. If the Authority is of the opinion that the search for and the preparation of the records requested will require more than six hours, the Authority is entitled to ask for a deposit of one third of the access fees which will be payable in respect of the records requested by the requester. The requester may make an application to the High Court to be exempted from the requirement to pay this deposit. If a deposit is made and access to the records requested is subsequently refused, the deposit will be repaid to the requester.
- 8.7. All payments must be made in the form of an Electronic Funds Transfer to the Finance Department of the Authority or by cash deposit into the Authority's banking account provided below.
