JUDGMENT

JCW VAN ROOYEN SC

BACKGROUND

[1] On 15 January 2009 Ubizo Telecom Management (Pty) Ltd ("Ubizo") was issued with an Individual Electronic Communications Network Service Licence and an Individual Electronic Communications Network Service Licence by the Independent Communications Authority of South Africa ("ICASA"), signed by the then Chairperson of ICASA, Paris Mashile. ICASA's Compliance Division (ECS and

ECNS licences), which has a delegated monitoring function, referred this matter to the Complaints and Compliance Committee ("CCC"), alleging that Ubizo had not filed financial statements for the financial year-ends 2008 to 2012, that no contribution had been made in terms of the Universal Service and Access Fund ("USAF") and no licence fees paid.

[2]The relevant Regulations under which the reference was made are from September 2011.<sup>2</sup> In so far as the year-ends before 2012 are concerned, the CCC is not constitutionally authorised to hear the matter. The Constitution of the Republic of South Africa<sup>3</sup> does not permit charges to be brought under repealed legislation, unless a charge was initiated while such legislation was still in operation.<sup>4</sup> The allegation of omissions was sent by Licensing (Compliance) to the CCC Coordinator in 2013. Thus, only the contravention relating to the non-submission of the 2011-2012 financial statement is before the CCC. The same principle applies to the payment of USAF fees and licence fees. Earlier omissions are, accordingly, not before the CCC since they relate to dates before the 2011 Regulations became operative, including year-end 2011, which would be February 2011. The debts, however, remain intact.<sup>5</sup>

[3] The duty to file financial statements was published in the Government Gazette in 2011, 2012 and 2013 and copied on the ICASA Website. The Notices called upon licensees to file financial statements with ICASA. These Notices were published in accordance with the Standard Regulations which authorize ICASA to require information from licensees.<sup>6</sup> The Notices were necessary to trigger the possible fines in terms of the September 2011 Regulations.<sup>7</sup> As will appear from the attached Regulations, omissions to file financial statements and pay

USAF contributions and licence fees attract fines which could, under aggravating circumstances, be quite substantial.

[4] When the licensee was traced, it emerged, from an affidavit by the sole director of the company, Mr Pieter Daniel De Wet, that the company's name had been amended to BCSConnect (Pty) Ltd and that the necessary authorisation for the name change had been granted by the Companies and Intellectual Property Commission. On 2 January 2013 the CIPC certificate plus documentation regarding financial reporting were sent to ICASA by the licensee. An amount of R5827.50 had also been paid for USAF fees for the period 2012-2013. Copies were attached to the affidavit filed with the CCC Coordinator. BCSConnect had been the wholesale international bandwith supplier to the City of Johannesburg Broadband and Network Project, under the ownership of Bwired Broadband (Pty) Ltd – a contract which was, however, terminated in 2014. BCSConnect last traded in 2014. The name of the contact person, a change of address as well as a copy of the amendment of the name of the licence holder were also provided to the Coordinator of the CCC in October 2017 as a result of the present CCC process. The Company was planning to trade again and would take part in the "SA Connect Tender" which, in 2017, according to the Director, again emerged as a real opportunity. Copies of audited financial statements for the years 2009, 2010, 2011 and 15 months for 2013 were included in the documentation placed before the CCC by the Coordinator of the CCC.

[5] In the light of the process followed by the CCC Coordinator's Office and led to the explanatory affidavit from the Director, an Inter-Office Memo was received from Compliance (Licensing), paragraphs 3 and 4 reading as follows:

"Ubizo Telecom has since made submissions on 25 October 2017, for the AFS from 2009 to 2013 and submitted Form O for change of information. Given the above findings Ubizo Telecom has since complied and the matter must be given a desist (order)."

FINDING AND ORDER ADVISED TO COUNCIL

[6] The CCC's finding is that the licensee has, as a result of the investigation by the Coordinator's Office, submitted what was required and paid its fees. Nevertheless, it had contravened the Regulations as charged. However, the bona fides of the licensee was clearly substantiated by its Director's Affidavit and it is not necessary to advise Council to add a further order to the basic order in terms of section 17E(2)(a), which provides as follows:

(a) direct the licensee to desist from any further contravention;

THE RECOMMENDATION TO COUNCIL OF ICASA IS TO ISSUE THE FOLLOWING ORDER:

UBIZO TELECOM MANAGEMENT (Pty) Ltd, now known as BCSCONNECT (Pty) Ltd, is ordered in terms of section 17E(2)(a) of the ICASA Act to desist in future from:

- (a) Not filing its Annual Financial Statements timeously as prescribed;
- (b) Not paying its USAF fees as prescribed;
- (c) Not applying to ICASA for permission when it is not active in terms of its licences.
